The petitioner has filed this writ petition for quashing the order of termination, Annexure P-1 dated 13.5.2000. He further submits that return and rejoinder have been filed in the said original application. Now since the tribunal has been abolished, the matter is not being taken up and the petitioner is in great trouble. He further submits that presently, this petition be disposed of with a direction to call or transfer the record from the tribunal and to dispose of the matter as early as possible in accordance with law.
